

Broadway Night

January 24th and 25th

Expectations

Congratulations on being selected to participate in this year's show!
You are expected to:

BE PROFESSIONAL.

ATTENDANCE

- You may be absent from a maximum of 2 rehearsals prior to tech week. In order to be excused from the rehearsal, you must communicate with Mrs. Gigliotti at least 3 days prior to the absence. If you are sick, then an email, text or phone call should occur immediately.
- If you are tardy more than 2 times (15 + late) you will be dismissed from the show.
- Students who are MIA without any direct notification to Mrs. G (not another student) will be removed from the cast and/or replaced.
- You must learn to take responsibility for yourself and your commitments.

PREPARATION

Once you receive your assigned piece – take time to PRACTICE it. If you are not well rehearsed, you risk being removed from the program or replaced.

YOU are responsible for your own props, costumes, and make-up; however, student leaders/directors will do their best to help you find what you need. If you borrow a costume you are responsible for its care.

BE RESPECTFUL & COURTEOUS of your fellow cast members, Mrs. Gigliotti & her team of Professional Performing Arts teachers, the production team, your student directors. Everyone will put in a lot of time and energy for your success in this show and all deserve your respect.

FEES

All BWN participants will pay a $40 fee which will be used toward covering professional fees for our performing arts team, your t-shirt and your meals for the Saturday rehearsals and Tech & Dress nights. The fee is payable via cash or check to SLHS.
